BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1378, entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Pittsburgh Hospital Association Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PURUCKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have here a letter from the Secretary of the Department of Welfare and in that letter the Secretary reports that everything is O. K. for that hospital. She states in her letter:

"Department of Welfare, Harrisburg.

April 5, 1927.

Hon. Joseph Marcus, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Mr. Marcus:

Pursuant to your request this morning we have reviewed our records with reference to the Pittsburgh Hospital Association. This was one of the hospitals with which the Department entered into a contract under the lump sum appropriation of one million dollars granted two years ago.

Before accepting the Pittsburg Hospital Association as a contract hospital a careful investigation was made as to the care rendered the patients, particularly to ward patients. It was found that the patients were receiving satisfactory care and treatment without regard to creed, race or nationality.

The hospital installed the uniform accounting system used by all State-aided hospitals and has complied with the rules and regulations of the Department relating to free and part pay service. The Pittsburgh Hospital Association has shown a willingness to comply with the requests of the Department and co-operate in the fullest measure.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) E. Grace McCauley
(Mrs. E. S. H. McCauley),
Secretary of Welfare."

I most respectfully ask the members of the House to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 621, entitled

An Act making an appropriation to the Passavant Hospital of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is my impression that if the members of the House were familiar with the letter written in regard to this institution by the Department of Welfare they would be willing to vote for this appropriation. I have here a letter addressed to me under date of April 5th as follows:

"Department of Welfare, Harrisburg.

April 5, 1927.

Hon. Joseph Marcus, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Mr. Marcus:

Pursuant to your request this morning we have reviewed our records with reference to the Passavant Hospital, Pittsburgh. This was one of the hospitals with which the Department entered into a contract under the lump sum appropriation of one million dollars granted two years ago.

Before accepting the Passavant Hospital as a contract hospital a careful investigation was made as to the care rendered the patients, particularly to ward patients. It was found that the patients were receiving satisfactory care and treatment without regard to creed, race or nationality.

The hospital installed the uniform accounting system used by all State-aided hospitals and has complied with the rules and regulations of the Department relating to free and part pay service. The Passavant Hospital has shown a willingness to comply with the requests of the Department and co-operate in the fullest measure.

The hospital was granted a new charter in November 1926, a copy of which has been filed with the Department. This charter states "The management of said corporation shall be non-Sectarian" and there is nothing in the charter that indicates that the hospital is Sectarian.

Very truly yours,

E. Grace McCauley
(Mrs. E. S. H. McCauley),
Secretary of Welfare."

In view of all of these facts I ask for your favorable consideration of this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed on third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. GANN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend page 5, line 10, by striking out the word [thereof] and inserting the word "hereof"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, sometime ago I introduced a resolution for an investigation of the merit system in the schools of Philadelphia. That resolution was referred to committee. Since that time there have been numerous requests for information as to why I did it. I recommitted the resolution in response to the request from a good friend of mine, the Honorable George A. Welsh of Philadelphia, who is a member of the Board of Education of Philadelphia, and he assures me that he will take the matter up and that the Board of Education will take the matter up and that they will carefully investigate the subject matter of the resolution. I have the utmost confidence in Mr. Welsh and the utmost confidence in the other members of the Board of Education. I think it is due to the members of the House that you know what the reasons were that prompted me in offering that resolution and I am going to tell you. There is one of the active teachers in the schools of Philadelphia, Robert J. Adams, who is the principal of the High School. He is the man who led the attack against me for offering this resolution. Last Saturday I took a little time off to look him up. Here is what he is: He works at the High School and makes thirty-four hundred dollars a year as a day time teacher, and he works at nighttime in the night schools and makes thirteen hundred and fifty dollars a year. His wife, Selina Roberts, works in the West Philadelphia High School and earns thirty-two hundred dollars a year as a daytime teacher, and works at nighttime and earns about five hundred dollars a year. They have no children, and it seems to me as if the merit system was a very bad one when teachers are walking the streets out of employment, when some have employment day and night, when others are unemployed. I have received numerous letters, not so very many of them, and I don't want to burden the House with the reading of these letters. If the House will give me permission I will ask that they be copied in the Journal so that my position may be made clear.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the letters referred to by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, may be printed in the Journal.

Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and the remarks of the gentleman, together with the letters, will be spread upon the Journal.

HIGH SCHOOL TEACHERS REPRESENTATIVE COMMITTEE

March 30, 1927.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, held this afternoon, representatives were present from all the senior high schools at Germantown.

The following items of business were presented for consideration:

1. A report was rendered by those present as to the progress of the collection of "Fund for Counsel." The following figures were given:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Central ..... | 133 | Southern Boys .. | *75 |
| Northeast ..... | 103 | Southern Girls .. | *30 |
| Frankford ..... | 88 | Roxborough ..... | *14 |
| Kensington | not ready | West Phila. .... | *90 |
| Wm. Penn ..... | *94 | Overbrook ..... | *85 |
| Girls' High .... | *41 | Germantown .... | |

Total 733. Those starred, canvass not complete.

In view af the fact that the total number of senior high school teachers is 1246 the number reported represented 58.8% this total; disregarding the evident fact that returns from the two missing schools would considerably swell the number and increase the percentage.

This preliminary return indicates the vote of affirmation asked by your committee, and on that basis the executive committee decided to discuss an agenda to be presented to the representatives for action on Wednesday afternoon next. The main points in this are as follows:

A. A list on possible counsel was discussed and made. Additions to or elisions from this list will be welcomed at the meeting.

B. The question of incorporation was discussed and the merits and demerits presented. Please advise YOUR representatives as to your views in order that they may be aware of them when they discuss the question.

C. It was moved that the Treasurer, Secretary, and President be instructed to open an account in the name of "The High School Teachers Representative Committee," for the "Fund for Counsel" subscriptions. Checks will be drawn upon this account on motion of the Executive Comm.; said checks to be signed by two of the three officers named. Please make out your checks to order of the Committee.

D. Discussion was had as to the advisability of considering the extending of an invitation to the Junior High School Teachers Organization to join with us in our present discussion of organization and group activities. It was pointed out that the probelms of their teachers were in many cases our problems, and that the needs of the two groups were identical in many cases. Our professional points of view are the same. Give your thought to this question, and tell it to your representatives.

E. On motion, the following resolution was sent to the Board of Public Education: The High School Teachers Representative Committee, representing the high school teachers of Phila., respectfully repeat our request that the maximum salaries be increased by increasing the number of increments in our salary schedule.

The morale of our teaching body is such that we urge most strongly that the Board provide at least two additional increments to date from May 1, 1927.

F. Routine bills for mimeographing, stationery, etc., were approved and the treasurer authorized to pay these. (Such payments are made from the treasury; not from the "Fund for Counsel.")

The committee felt immensely encouraged by the prompt and hearty response to the request for support which had been made to the members of the group. During the past two weeks the president and vice-president have visited almost all of the schools, have spoken to the group on its problems and responsibilities, and it is apparent that there is greater unanimity of feeling, and far keener interest, among the high school teachers, as a group than there has been at any time in the four years of the committee's existence.

Your support has been pledged, your money will soon be coming in. Since it is YOUR committee and YOUR money, please keep your representative advised as to your views, and please use your influence to have your representatives at the meetings of the committee, in order that your wishes may be known.

Very truly yours,

Robert J. Adams, Jr., President

Honorable Clinton A. Sowers,
House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Mr. Sowers:-

Both your letters of March 31st to Mr. Moyer and Mr. Reese have been referred to the writer. The Patriotic Order Sons of America favor your House Bill No. 1456. In the many bills considered, it is apparent that an error was made with reference to this particular bill. We acknowledge our error just as freely as we opposed other measures. We are notifying the members of the House and Senate, that we favor this Bill, and requesting their support of the same.

Thanking you for calling our attention to the matter, I am,

Very truly yours,

OFFICE OF

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

April 2, 1927.

To the Members of the State Senate and Legislature.

Dear Sirs:-

We beg to inform you that this Order favors the adoption of House Bill No. 1456 introduced by Mr. Sowers. We notified you in a previous communication, that we were opposed to this measure. We gladly acknowledge our error, which was due entirely to an oversight.

We will appreciate your whole hearted support of this measure. Without question, none but Americans, either native or naturalized should be permitted to teach in the American Public School System.

May we again remind you that the Constitution of the Commonwealth, clearly prohibits appropriation of State Funds or property to Sectarian institutions. Our only desire is to forever keep Church and State separated for the common good of all who enjoy the blessed privileges of being Americans, or enjoy the fruits and joys which come with residing here.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. Sowers:

I wish to thank you for your letter of March 30th enclosing a copy of House Bill No. 1456 introduced by you on March 8th.

I am heartily in accord with the idea of having all teachers in our American schools either native born or naturalized. I feel that American youth has a right to have the basic principles of American Democracy instilled by those who are thoroughly American in their outlook on life. It would be very unfortunate if we, in this great country of ours, did not take such steps to safeguard the principles that mean so much to us.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Sowers:-

On behalf of over Thirty thousand members of the Fraternal Patriotic Americans of the State of Pennsylvania, I desire to express our appreciation for the Patriotic service you have rendered by the introduction and the passage of House Bill No. 1456, requiring that School Boards engage as teachers only persons who are either native born or naturalized for at least two years.

Your policy of preventing the employment of unnaturalized persons to teach native born children has the unqualified approval of the entire organization of which I have the honor to represent.

Very truly yours

ORDER OF INDEPENDENT AMERICANS, Inc.
State Council of Pennsylvania

Harrisburg, April 6, 1927.

To the Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:-

The Committee on Education has now within its charge House Bill 1456, File Folio 4049. The purpose of this Act is to prevent the employment of aliens as teachers in the Public Schools of this Commonwealth.

We believe the provisions of this Act are but fair and just to the citizens of our State. It is an encouragement to the American young man or woman to seek the teaching field. The alien teacher who has disregarded the rights and opportunities to become a citizen should not be considered as a beneficiary of the taxes derived from the citizenship of Pennsylvania.

Our Order, numbering 50,000 in the State, will greatly appreciate your favorable consideration of this Act. We consider it an Act which carries with it protection to the citizen in the broadest sense and an appreciation of the Public School system of the State.

Very respectively yours,
Edward Wilson,
Secretary,

My dear Mr. Sowers:

I have read Bill No. 1456 and heartily approve of it although I can imagine some individual cases where it may work hardship. I may state that I have gone over the Bill with the Superintendent of Schools of Philadelphia and that he, too, approves the measure.

Very truly yours,

President, Southeastern Convention District, Pennsylvania State Education Association.

My dear Mr. Sowers:

This is in answer to your courteous communication of March thirtieth. As an American citizen, I am much interested to have American girls and boys taught by American-born teachers or by teachers who have been naturalized as citizens worthy to undertake so important a work as instructing young people.

Very truly yours,
Beulah A. Fenimore, Prin.

April 6, 1927.

Hon. William D. Mansfield,
Chairman, Committee on Education,
Senate of Pennsylvania,
Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Senator Mansfield:-

On behalf of the Order of Independent Americans of Pennsylvania, numbering 50,000 of our citizenship, I most respectfully solicit your consideration and assistance in behalf of H. R. Bill 1456, file folio 4049, introduced by the Hon. Clinton Sowers, March 8th, passed final reading March 29th.

The purpose of this bill is to permit the employment of teachers in the Public Schools of the Commonwealth who are of American birth or citizens by adoption.

We do not consider the provisions of the bill as other than one of benefit. The elimination of alien teachers in our schools cannot be considered a drastic policy when the alien teacher has failed to acquire citizenship by naturalization. We consider, from a view point of right, that the graduate of our school system should be given first consideration.

To permit the employment of alien teachers appears as a reflection upon the educational system, as being deficient in its method of instruction. The employment of aliens as teachers tends to the discouragement of the young American man or woman who has received his or her education through the channels of taxation for school purposes.

The bill provides for the employment of American citizensin its broadest sense. It gives preference to the citizen teacher, protecting them from an unfair and un-American competition for position with those of alien birth, who are not classified as citizens.

We thrust that you may consider this appeal as having no motive other than one of protection to the American citizen of this Commonwealth.

Very respectively yours,
Edward Wilson,
Secy. Legislative Committee.

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

March 26, 1927.

Clinton A Sowers, Esquire,
Member of the Legislature,
Harrisburg, Pa.
My dear Mr. Sowers:

It is somewhat with a feeling of embarrassment that I write you on the subject of the resolution that you introduced last week calling for an investigation of the Board of Education by a Committee of the Legislature.

It is ambarrassing for this reason—As a member of the Board of Education I would not want you, or anyone else, to feel that I had any objection to, or fear of, an inquiry by any duly constituted Legislative Committee. At the same time my interest in the schools is such that I would not want the Legislature, or the public, to feel that by silence I acquiesced in the charges made in the resolution.

The fact that you and I have known each other for so many years, and that while as Assistant District Attorney of this county I prosecuted scores of cases in which you represented the defendant, leads me to feel that if I make a statement to you of an existing fact, you will believe me. It is because of that feeling on my part I want to tell you in writing that the Board of Education has conducted its affairs with absolute honesty and integrity, and with as great a collective wisdom as the fifteen members of the Board have been endowed with. They give their time and energy to this great work, and they give the best that is in them.

I know from my experience with you at the Bar that you are fair in your judgments and would not knowingly do an unjust thing. I believe that you have come in contact with certain persons who have been dissatisfied because they could not get all they imagined they should get at the hands of the Board. Such a condition exists in every department of human endeavor; more especially does this feeling exist in matters of great public concern.

These persons have impressed you with the feeling that they have been unjustly discriminated against, and you have probably felt impelled to right their supposed wrongs. Your actions have undoubtedly produced a great deal of thought on the whole subject, and made all persons concerned scan the entire field of public educational activities more closely than ever before. To that extent your actions have not been destructive. However, I feel obliged to say that if they are proceeded with further. the results will be destructive instead of constructive. This, I know, you would regret as much as I would.

Having placed the subject before you in this light, I would like to call your attention to the fact that under the school code the State Superintendent of Schools has the duty imposed upon him of investigating the educational conditions in the sixty-seven counties of the state. Philadelphia and Allegheny Counties are not exempt from this requirement. I know you would not want to cause any reflection upon the State Superintendent of Schools by inferring from your resolution that this official had been derelict in his duty.

Only several years ago the then State Superintendent of Schools conducted a most exhaustive survey of the entire school facilities of Philadelphia. He made certain justified criticisms and many constructive suggestions. Our Board has carried out, I believe, all those constructive suggestions. I cite this fact to show you that if there is anything wrong in the Philadelphia school system you do not need the resolution you have introduced.

There is only one other feature of your resolution that I want to comment upon, both as a member of the Board of Education, and as a citizen. You referred to alleged irregularities on the part of our teachers and alleged immorality on the part of our high school students.

I want to ask you to take my statement as to these matters rather than irresponsible rumors. I would not, of course, say that among a high school student body of over thirty thousand there are not some cases of delinquincy, but our high schools are a cross section of the real life of Philadelphia. The morals of our girls and boys are as good and pure as the morals of any of the youth of any city in the world. I, myself, have heard some of the rumors to which you refer. They were made some months ago and I made an effort to verify them. I found that the rumors had no actual foundation in fact.

I am going to ask that you will be kind enough to communicate the information I have given you to the Legislature, in whatever form you may in your judgment deem best. By this I do not want you to think that I am seeking to embarrass you in any way, but I am making this appeal to you because I know you well enough to believe that you are desirous of a true picture of existing facts being presented to the public. Also please consider that in writing this letter I am writing as one individual member of the Board of Education, and in my individual capacity. and that what I have set forth above is not to be construed as an expression of the Board itself.

Assuring you of my personal regard and esteem, I am

Sincerely yours,
Geo. A. Welsh

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Richards.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 2081, (Senate Bill No. 463), entitled:

An Act providing that city treasurers of third class cities shall be exofficio treasurers of the school districts within such cities and collectors of city school and poor taxes fixing their salaries for the performance of such duties and providing for clerks collectors and office expenses and requiring school districts to pay their portion of the expense of the central office created by this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, is there any one in the House, who will explain the purposes of the bill or permit himself to be interrogated, or will the gentleman who called up the bill explain the reasons for this bill?

Mr. RICHARDS. I will Mr. Speaker. This bill is presented by Senator Weingartner of the 47th District. This bill is one of a series of similar bills which he has had passed by this session of the General Assembly. The bill does this: It places the treasurers of cities of the third class upon a salary instead of upon the fee system under which they are now working. At the present time the treasurers of the counties of this class, or counties in the class such as Lawrence, are on salary, the sheriffs are on salary, the registers and recorders are on salary, and the prothonotary, —in fact almost every office in the city and county is on salary at the present time with the exception of the city treasurer. This bill is to equalize the present condition. Does that answer your question?

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it seems to me we should scrutinize this bill very carefully before we vote on it. The gentleman has spoken about the several officers being on a salary basis, but, realize if you will, that the city treasurer of third class cities is placed in an unusual position and is held responsible by the school board for the collection of the per capita tax with a small salary of five thousand dollars and if he is charged with at least one or two thousand dollars, as a maximum it would reduce his salary so it would be impossible to get even a living wage out of that particular salary. I trust you will vote it down.

Mr. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Talbot, that the bill should be scrutinized very carefully. I want to go on record with Mr. Talbot in asking you to scrutinize the bill very carefully, but I believe he has taken the wrong impression. This bill applies to city treasurers of cities of the third class in regard to their salaries. It is true it is going to cut down the renumeration which these gentlemen are now receiving. For instance, I am informed that the city treasurer of the city of Johnstown is now receiving per year about eighteen thousand dollars. The city treasurer of Harrisburg, I rather imagine, is receiving about eleven thousand dollars. The city treasurer of New Castle is now receiving about nine thousand dollars. These salaries are very splendid salaries, of course. However, when you compare the salary of a city treasurer with that of a judge of the court of common pleas, it appears to me that there is an inequality somewhere. Surely a man learned in the law charged with the enforcing of the law is entitled to a salary commensurate with that of a man charged with the collection of taxes. A judge of the court of common pleas receives eight thousand dollars. Is it fair to pay a city treasurer twenty thousand dollars as against eight thousand dollars paid to a judge of the court. It is true these gentlemen are charged with receiving the taxes of the city and of the school districts. It is not true that the salary of the city treasurer would be cut down by any fees which he may be called upon to pay. The bill as drawn provides that the bond of the city treasurer shall be paid by the city, the men who are employed to assist him will be paid by the city. The salary of from three to five thousand dollars will be all clear to the city treasurer. The one reason for the passage of this bill is that Senator Weingartner says, the time has come when cities should cut down the expense of administration as much as possible. This bill is not a salary raiser, but it is a tax reducer. I bid for the same support that was given to other bills that were offered intended and designed to accomplish the same end, that of cutting down the expenses of government of cities of the third class. I sincerely trust you will vote on this bill and pass it as other bills have been passed in previous sessions.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. HEFFERON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appear to have it. Whereupon, a division was called for and 101 members having voted in the affirmative and 46 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, with all due respect to my good friend Mr. Brown, I am forced to get on this floor and oppose this bill. This is a bill which strikes violently against the building and loan associations and as this House has jealously guarded the building and loan association in the past I ask for your consideration for a few moments to show it is a vicious bill that probably will strike at the heart of building and loan associations. This bill to begin with recites that any five stockholders, three of whom shall be citizens of Pennsylvania shall subscribe to its incorporate title. As a matter of fact we have been threatened by foreign capital coming into Pennsylvania and gobbling up building and loan associations. If this goes through we have three resident members who are incorporators, and the others may be foreign capital incorporators, coming in here and stifling competition in building and loan associations. I call your attention to the one fact in this bill which provides that five per cent of the capital stock of these so called thrift associations may step in and buy building and loan stock, which means that those thrift associations with a capitalization of $50,000 to $1,000,000, would gobble up every building and loan association throughout the state and you would have nothing to say, and the building and loan associations themselves would be then controlled and governed by foreign capital. I also wish to call your attention to the fact that this bill provides that these so-called thrift associations may buy land, they have a right to lease, you are making them land corporations instead of real thrift corporations. They have the power to lease and sell and buy. That language in itself is vicious as against any thrift association. There are a number of sections that I could call to the attention of the House, and they are real matters of proof why this bill should not be enacted in an act of assembly. The bill is very poorly drawn and I warn every member of the House to vote against this bill. I want to set you right before you vote for a bill that is not properly drawn.

Mr. GUERIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I desire to correct the statement made by the gentleman from Allegheny, when he said that it was possible for these corporations to go into a building and loan association and buy up practically all of the stock. As I understand it the bill was amended so that not more than five percent of the stock in any association could be bought. When this bill was originally introduced it had a great many things that did put it into competition with the building and loan associations, but as it is now, I believe it will help rather than hurt building and loan associations. The object of this bill is to create an association, particularly of people in the schools of the state of Pennsylvania and in thinly populated parts of the state, to give them an opportunity to take stock in the building and loan associations. They don't attempt to do anyything at all on the line of building and loan association work, but merely to have the privilege of buying stock, and not more than five per cent. This bill was discussed in committee, the amendment referred to, which largely is covered by the by-laws of the building and loan associations was inserted at the request of the various department heads saying it would be wise to have it in and for that reason the bill is drawn in the manner in which it is. I believe it will be helpful to building and loan associations, and I speak from experience. I am secretary of five of them and have organized all of them. I believe it will be very helpful to the building and loan associations of the state if this bill is passed.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would reply that if any person wants to invest money in the building and loan associations you don't need a thrift association to do that for you. Every member of a building and loan association can come into that association individually. You don't need a thrift association. You don't need a thrift association to foster thrift as you attempt in this bill. As a matter of fact I should say that that passage is dubious as far as the five percent is concerned. I say that five per cent of the thrift associations can buy up all the stock of the building and loan associations in Pennsylvania thereby forcing, you might say, all the officers and all of the stockholders out of that concern and foreign capital then would control the association. If the school teachers have any money that they want to invest, they do not have to invest that money in a thrift association. You will have a terrible overhead. This thrift association is not going to run for love, it is going to charge its salaries, it is going to have its overhead charges. Let that school teacher, or whoever he may be, invest money directly in the building and loan associations, and derive profits from the actual association rather than from an association for profit as this association attempts to do. In this bill you have attempted to even exempt it from taxation, and it is a corporation for profit. I say, vote against this bill.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, I should like, with your permission, to read section five of this bill. I think you will agree that it refutes his claim that this thrift association would gobble up building and loan associations or be in any way antagonistic to them. It says, "In the purdhase of any stocks, bonds or other securities of building and loan associations, which are now or may hereafter be placed under the supervision of the Department of Banking, provided, that not more than five per centum of the assets of this association shall be invested in the securities of any one such association, and provided, further, that the investments of this association in the securities of any one such institution shall not exceed five per centum of the stock or shares of such institution outstanding or in force at the time such investment is made." Now, it is verv evident from that clause that they cannot in any way interfere with building and loan associations by way of control, but on the contrary they would actually be feeders for such associations when they buy the stock. They cannot in any other way interfere with building and loan associations. This bill has been prepared with great care and with the welfare of building and loan associations in mind. I hope, members of the House, that you will vote favorably on it and give outlying districts an opportunity to make investments which they otherwise are unable to make, and get a return for their money somewhat on a parity with the return provided by building and loan associations. Vote for the bill.

Mr. STORB. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think this bill is of very doubtful character. We do not want to provide something for the people of Pennsylvania to invest their money in that is doubtful. We have plenty of good building and and loan associations, we have plenty of banks and trust companies that pay interest on money, and I don't think we should put such an association before them and say, "It is all right." I am against the bill.

An Act to require the treasurer of each county of the fourth class in this Commonwealth, from and after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight, and annually thereafter, to pay to the treasurers of the several townships, boroughs and cities within such county, to be expended for road purposes therein, one-fourth of the net amount received from the tax for county purposes imposed on personal property by the act entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes," approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and seven) and the several supplements thereto and amendments thereof.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Peters, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. WHEELER. Am I correct in assuming that under the provisions of this bill one-fourth of the particular county tax mentioned would of necessity be returned to the local municipality, township, or borough?

Mr. PETERS. Yes, it would.

Mr. WHEELER. Do you feel that such a mandatory measure applied to the whole state is sound financial legislation?

Mr. PETERS. This only applies to fourth-class counties.

Mr. PETERS. No sir, I cannot.

HOUSE BILLS DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that, at the close of the session of the House today, April 11th, all House Bills be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1886, entitled

A Supplement to the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and twenty-one) entitled "An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a non-resident of the Commonwealth at the of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal" authorizing the Auditor General to appoint investigators and appraisers and providing for their compensation

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHEELER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DAVIDSON. I would like to ask the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, if this is an administration measure.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will say that I am creditably informed that this bill is approved in principle by this administration, by the Auditor General and by the Executive Committee.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHEELER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HALL. I would like to ask the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, just what he expects to do by this bill.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the object of this bill, may I inform the gentleman, is to increase the efficiency of the collection of the transfer inheritance tax. At the present time the cost of collection for this particular state tax is seven and seven-tenths per cent. which compares with less than seven-tenths of one per cent for all taxes collected in the department of the Auditor General. In the second place the bill would seek to give certain powers of supervision to the Auditor General which he has not now under the law. At the present time he is powerless to revise the amount fixed in the local appraisements except as to errors or omissions, and except upon appeal to the courts. In addition to that, the bill provides that the Auditor General may appoint appraisers of his own to assist the local appraisers and also if the occasion requires to replace the local appraisers. The bill might have gone the whole hog and abolished the task of the local assessment and collection of this tax. It did not go so far. It merely provides that the Auditor General has a supervising control and there is, therefore, greater efficiency in the collection of this particular tax. It is estimated that at least two hundred thousand dollars a year will be brought into the treasury if this bill becomes a law without breaking up the regular powers of the local register of wills.

Mr. HALL. I would like to ask the gentleman from Forest whether or not the Auditor General does not have the power at the present time that is given to him under section one of this act.

Mr. WHEELER. He does not have the power to change the appraisement made in the several counties of this state except for errors or for certain omissions or upon an appeal to the court.

Mr. HALL. The first sentence of this bill reads as follows: "that the Auditor General shall have complete supervision of the making of appraisements in estates of resident decedents." I would like to ask whether or not the Auditor General does not have that power without the enactment of this statute.

Mr. WHEELER. The gentleman is informed that he has not.

Mr. HALL. Does he not have that power under the act of 1919?

Mr. WHEELER. The gentleman is again informed that he does not have such power.

Mr. HALL. In section two the phrase occurs, "whenever occasion may require an appraiser appointed by the Auditor General instead of an appraiser now appointed by the register of wills shall appraise the value of the property or estate of which a resident decedent died seized or possessed." Will the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, kindly explain the phrase, "whenever occasion shall require."

Mr. WHEELER. I believe I have already touched upon and attempted to elucidate that point which the gentleman from Dauphin is attempting to raise. It is clearly stated that the Auditor General shall have the power to appoint in a particular case an appraiser of his own if the occasion requires.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Wheeler, when would such an occasion arise?

Mr. WHEELER. I should answer the gentleman from Dauphin by saying that in a case where the local appraisement was not correctly performed from the point of view of the Commonwealth, which is to receive the revenue, that that occasion would arise.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, this is a bill which I believe deserves your utmost scrutiny. You have heard the answers given by the gentleman from Forest, Mr. Wheeler, relative to the bill in which he says that whenever the occasion may require, you can read it in the bill, the Auditor General shall appoint the appraiser rather than the register of wills in your respective counties as at the present time. Now, when may the occasion require? Those who favor this bill will say when a false or untrue return is made by an appraiser, and yet you all know how estates are now appraised and you realize that the appraiser who makes that return must make it under oath and if he makes a false return or an untrue return he is guilty of perjury under the acts of this state. Now, that is the way to stop false returns if we must stop them. Why take away from the county, from the register of wills, the power to appoint men in the respective counties who know the estates both personal and real and can appraise them better than any one who may come from a distance. Furthermore, I wish to bring to your attention this fact, that this is just another bill towards centralization. Yes, bring everything right here into the capitol, they will govern everything. It is taking away from the counties more of the rights that belong there. Let us not centralize too much. That is one of the faults, we have heard it here before this session that we are making our government too central. Let us be for home rule; you have heard of the home rule, we are all proud of it. We don't want to give our rights away, let us keep them in the county where they belong. Furthermore, if any appraisement is made that is not satisfactory to the Auditor General there is a right of appeal and that appraisement can be taken into the court and it can be interpreted in the light of the present laws of Pennsylvania. Now, why should we in the face of these things take away from the register of wills the right of appointing men who know the estate they have to appraise and give it to someone who may be from a distant county and not know how to appraise it. I have discussed this bill with a good many members of the House. I feel very much wrought up about it and I wish at this time, Mr. Speaker, to make a motion that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker I ask for a roll call.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe it would be a mistake to recommit this bill to the Committee on Counties and Townships. Both the Auditor General and the administration are strongly in favor of this bill. They feel it is necessary in order to enable them to work out the greatest efficiency in this matter of the appraisement of estates. I think it would be an outrage to recommit this bill.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, if it would be in order, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hall.

The SPEAKER. Only on this motion would it be in order.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the nays appeared to have it.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a division.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. EARLEY. My point of order is that the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess, being for the bill, I don't see why he should ask for a division because he is with the majority.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is not well taken. Any one may call for a division.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, a request for a roll call is before the House.

The SPEAKER. There was only one request for a roll call and the rules of the House require two.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Goodnough and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, just to correct a statement that the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hall, made a while ago inadvertently, because, as I understand, he was informed. The Auditor General does not have at the present time the right of appeal. If the appraiser making the appraisement omits certain assets, in that event he does have the right of an appeal, but for the appraisement as a whole he has no right to an appeal.

My friend speaks also about home rule. Everybody that knows anything knows very well that the Auditor General or no one else is going out of the county to choose an appraiser to appraise estates. What would a man in Dauphin County, for instance, know about the value of estates in Delaware County or in Erie County or what would a man from Delaware County know about the value of estates in Erie County or Dauphin County. Of course he is going to appoint appraisers from the county where the land is located so that the man will have the best knowledge of the value of the land. So from that standpoint there is no fear of getting away from home rule which we have at present. It is only putting into the hands of the Auditor General, whose duty it is at the present time through the register of wills to collect this money, the power to do his duty as he is required to do under the law.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Richardson,

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 1219, entitled:

An Act relating to the credibility of witnesses

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it has been my practice as a green and verdant member of this body, to be seldom seen and not at all heard. This bill I call your attention to for several reasons. First of all, because it is under a misprint. My name should be there instead of Mr. Richards. I wish at this time to express very sincerely my keen appreciation to every member of this House whom I have had the pleasure of knowing this session. I go back to my home and to my district with a very much higher appreciation of the legislature of Pennsylvania than when I came. I wish to call your attention to this bill also for another reason, that is, that it contains some patriotism. Last week, last Friday evening, the chief executive of our Commonwealth saw fit to veto a bill of which I had the honor to be the sponsor, House Bill No. 757. I do not know what the members of this House might do on this bill, although I feel quite sure you would pass the measure because of the fact that there is some patriotism contained in it, but for fear that it may meet with the Governor's disapproval as did the other bill, I therefore move you, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be stricken from the calendar.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1635, entitled:

A Supplement to an act approved the seventh day of May one thousand nine hunderd and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws five hundred fifty-seven) entitled "An act to provide for the sale of property against which a common law lien may exist for repairs and material and the method of procedure thereon" providing a method for the disposal of personal property of insufficient value to warrant the procedure provided for in said act

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. The hour of 10:45 o'clock P. M. having arrived, the House will take up the special order of business fixed for this time.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1968, (Senate Bill No. 545), entitled:

An Act to amend section four of the act of the fifth day of March one thousand nine hundred and six (Pamphlet Laws seventy-eight) entitled "An act to regulate nomination and election expenses and to require accounts of nomination and election expenses to be filed and providing penalties for the violation of this act"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker. I desire to interrogate the chairman of the Elections Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WILLIAMS. I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, if the words on page 2, lines 25 and 26, "for the transportation of voters to and from the polls", would permit a legalized payment by a candidate to the owner of an automobile for conveying himself and other voting members of his family to and from the polls.

Mr. MARCUS. That is the only interpretation I can get from that paragraph today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1975. (Senate Bill No. 657), entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred and two and section twelve hundred and one as amended of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" increasing the resident hunters' license fee and restricting the use of moneys derived from such increase

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLMES. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am going to ask you to vote against this bill because I don't believe this will be a solution of the present game problems in the State of Pennsylvania. It will only widen the gap existing between the sportsmen and the farmers of the state of Pennsylvania if we pass this bill, not because they object so much to the additional dollar, but they do object to the purpose for which it is to be used. I was at a meeting of sportsmen the other night at which there were one hundred members present, and a member of the State Game Commision was there, according to his estimate we have in the state of Pennsylvania now over two million deer, and the question today is how to handle the surplus does we find in the state. We have up in our county and in some adjoining counties some state game refuges. It has a certain number of acres with wire scretched around it and no one is permitted to hunt within that refuge. But at the end of the hunting season last fall and likewise the year before they declared an open doe season and they permitted the members of the hunting camps to go in and camp around that wire, and I know of one camp with twenty-one men that went in and in three days of the open doe season shot twenty-one deer. There were only sixteen does and five bucks, they lost their horns so that they could not tell. and there was an absolute loss according to someone, of fifty some deer for the next year. So it seems to me to be the height of folly to have game refuges and at the same time have an open doe season. The sportsmen of Pennsylvania do not want to see the does slaughtered. They are going to use this additional money to raise more deer and at the same time they are going to have an open doe season in order to slaughter these does. The State State Forestry Department are urging the people of Pennsylvania to re-forest our waste lands and the State Forestry Department is going throughout the state and trying to buy up the waste lands of Pennsylvania. Now, we are going to have the State Game Commission come in and get into competition with the Forestry Department to buy that same land and of course the price will materially increase under this competition. So I think that for the welfare of Pennsylvania and for the satisfaction of the farmers, and we might just as well acknowledge that the key to the hunting situation in Pennsylvania is controlled by the farmers of the state, if we pass this bill nearly every farmer will post his land. They have already threatened to do so and not permit the sportsmen to go over their lands to hunt even in the open season either for buck or doe. So in order to try to please everyone and unify the feeling of the rural sections, or the farmers, of Pennsylvania and the sportsmen of Pennsylvania it would be far better for us to leave the law stand as it is today. There is another bill that is to follow providing for the payment of damages which provides that extra dollar is to pay damages, and I hold in my hand petitions from many of the sportsmen's associations of the state. You all received a copy of the resolutions passed by the Isaac Walton League and the sportsmen of DuBois, and they are unanimously in favor of putting that extra dollar to the payment of damages done by these excess deer in certain locations. So if you are going to pass a bill raising the license fee let us place that money where it will do the most good for the sportsmen of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think a word of explanation is due to the members of this House in behalf of this bill. In the first place, answering my colleague from Center County, Mr. Holmes, this bill has nothing whatever to do with the open season on does. The bill is for an entirely different purpose. It increases the fee for hunters' licenses from one dollar and twenty-five cents to the sum of two dollars, not to two dollars and a quarter as has been stated. The purpose of this bill is: first, to provide for public grounds, public hunting grounds, for the landless man, the man who has no property of his own, the man who is barred from hunting in his district by the pre-emption of forest land by private individuals and by large hunting clubs. In other words, the purpose is in favor of the landless man who would otherwise not have a chance to hunt except on private property. In the second place, it is stated on high authority that it is an attempt to control the situaion with respect to the troubles of the farmer. At the present time the state forest lands which are open to hunting have so far grown up that they are no longer suitable for deer pasturage. As a result the deer are entering upon the cleared lands of the farmers with bad results. It is argued by those who are in favor of the bill and with the support of such authorities as Mr. John Phillips and others that this bill instead of adding to the farmers' troubles will help decrease his troubles by providing natural feeding grounds for the deer which will be watched over by the agents of the sportsmen. The sportsmen are not a unit against this bill as was intimated. I myself have received many telegrams and letters in favor of the bill. Finally, I understand that an agreement has been reached by which the money derived from this license fee and which amounts to one and one-half cents a week from each hunter in the state, will be put together with an appropriation made by the state for forest land to be purchased and obtained, and the result of which will be in favor of all elements concerned, those who are interested in conservation, those who are interested in the sport of deer hunting, and particularly for the benefit of the farmer. I ask you to vote "aye" on the bill.

Mr. FRANK D. EVANS. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am very glad my colleague from Center County, Mr. Holmes, has called your attention to the fact that there are possibly two million deer in the state of Pennsylvania. I desire to also call your attention to the fact that the individual primarily responsible for that many deer and all the game in Pennsylvania is sincerely desirous for the passage of this act, and I am certain every sportsman in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania if he knew the Honorable John M. Phillips is interested in and fighting for this bill, and that he would advise if possible each and every one of you that it was his desire that the bill pass, I believe you would be for the bill. It is for that reason, if for no other, that I shall vote in the affirmative.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The SPEAKER. The hour of 11:00 o'clock P. M. having arrived, the House will take up the special order fixed for this time.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1260, entitled:

An Act to ratify and adopt a compact negotiated by Commissioners designated by the Governor under a law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with Commissioners duly authorized thereto by the States of New York and New Jersey for the regularization of the flow of the Delaware River the conservation of the water resources of the Delaware Basin the apportionment thereof among the said States for domestic and municipal supply and the utilization thereof for power and other beneficial uses

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is one that relates to the division of the waters of the Delaware River between the states of New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The bill that is before you is really in the nature of the ratification of a contract made among the commissioners representing the states that I have just mentioned. Only one of the three states, New York, has ratified this bill, or rather, this agreement. New Jersey about a week or ten days ago sent to us a committee representing the Senate and the House of Representatives of that state, and in that conference the matter was very fully discussed. New Jersey wanted to know whether or not it was possible at that time for Pennsylvania to present a ratification vote to the assembly in time for the New Jersey legislature to vote on it before they adjourned. That committee was advised that it was impossible for Pennsylvania to have any consideration officially of this matter in time to permit the New Jersey legislature to act on it. That statement by those who represented our state has been construed by the state of New Jersey to mean that Pennsylvania promised not to ratify or to consider ratification of this measure during this session of the legislature. Aside, however, from that controversy, the measure has developed many more controversial points. So it was thought, even if Pennsylvania did ratify the agreement in time for New Jersey to donsider it, that New Jersey doubtless would have refused to ratify and that would of course have put the whole matter over again for a period of another year when the New Jersey legislature will again meet. Now, since the subject involved is of tremendous importance to the state of New Jersey as well as the state of Pennsylvania, and since in Pennsylvania alone the questions raised in this particular are highly controversial, and since the bill not only involves the waters directly related to the channels of the Delaware River, but as well the waters of the tributaries of that great river, it is the opinion of those that are interested in the subject that the bill should be recommitted.

I move you, therefore, Mr. Speaker. that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special.

Mr. GREENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING. (SPECIAL ORDER).

The SPEAKER. The hour of 11:15 o'clock P. M. having arrived, the House will take up the special order of business fixed for this time.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1774, (Senate Bill No. 564), entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an Amendment to Article Three of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, owing to the lateness of the hour and to the fact that today is the last day on which House bills can be considered, I will be very brief. In fact, I want to call to your attention a brief and very concise argument offered by his excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth. in this proposed legislation. The Governor's statement is as follows:

"I am opposed to the constitutional amendment proposing old age pension. I am opposed to any legislation constitutional or statutory which could fasten on the state a great list of civil pensioners. Our program for taking care of the dependent and needy is most liberal, through both the state and local agencies. At this session the state has made the most ample provision for charitable and welfare work in its entire history. In addition the administration has sanctioned the adoption of the proposed fifty million dollar bond issue for capital expenditures at welfare institution. The dependent class such as would be created by a large civil pension list would have a profound effect upon social and economic conditions, and furthermore, the direct financial obligation imposed by such legislation would create a demand on the resources of the state requiring a complete reconstruction of financial policy. It is anyone's guess as to the number of dependents who would come under the provisions of such an enactment. Many have estimated it to be far in excess of one hundred thousand, but if it were only one hundred thousand, at one dollar per day each, it would require $36,500,000 per year, or $73,000,000 per biennium. This would be a heavier burden than are the highways or the schools. Those who support this legislation must answer this question: Where are the taxes to come from? The issue raised by this proposal creates the most serious business proposition the state has ever been called upon to face in times of peace."

In view of that brief and concise argument I ask the members of this House to vote this bill down.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in spite of the interesting statement of the Governor, I assert that this statement is not based upon any facts but is just a guess. Every country and many states of the Union have come to the conclusion that the present methods of dealing with aged, indigent people are unsatisfactory, are barbarous and are old-fashioned and should be in some way improved. I know the limited time there is for a discussion of this bill. I will not go into the question as to whether or not we should have an old age pension. The 1923 session of the legislature voted that the state of Pennsylvania wants this system and the only debatable question tonight is whether or not we shall amend our constitution to include a clause that an appropriation may be made to aged, indigent persons. The other point is that we shall pass this bill now and permit it to go to the vote of the people, this being an amendment to the constitution and having passed the 1925 legislature and having passed the Senate in this session of the legislature and being up now for passage in the House. I contend, and it is my opinion based upon years of social study, that the aged, indigent people of the dependent clas should not be put in the same class as the aged, criminal, paupers, tramps, epileptics and insane and herded together as they are at the present time in poor houses. There should be a distinction in the matter of aged dependents in the same way that there is a distinition between children in the juvenile courts where there are juvenile dependents and juvenile delinquents, and this distinction is recognized legally and different treatment is given to each class. There are many aged people who are indigent and destitute and forsaken because of misfortune over which they had no control. It does not follow that they were shiftless or that they were careless or that they did not try. I believe that the civilization does not take into account the aged poor, people who are educated. people who are refined, artists and musicians, people who are educated, people who are refined, artists and musicians, people who are of the finest and most sensitive type, does something to help those people as best it can as opposed to the other class of pauper and criminals, and all of that class the civilization that does not take this into account and provide some kind of scientific and humane method of taking care of these people is not living up to its highest obligations in taking care of the welfare of the people.

The question that we are passing upon now is whether or not we shall put this clause into the constitution and whether we shall let it go to a vote of the people. The matter of the taxation and of the cost has been brought up. The cost of this thing will fall upon the tax payer. Then what is the objection to letting it go to the people and letting them say whether they shall undertake this burden and pay the taxes. I do not believe that this question has been thoroughly thrashed out. I do not believe that it is impossible to find a scientific solution of the matter. Nothing is impossible to science; witness the aeroplanes, the radio and the latest modern thing, the television where we sit at our telephone and look into the faces of the people we are talking to. Nothing is impossible to science and this matter has not been taken up properly and scientifically and I deny the idea that there is no scientific solution of this problem because nothing is impossible where science is interested. So finally I say, Mr. Speaker, this is a question that should go to the people. We vote on many things as representatives. We have to take our stand in the interests of our constituents as representatives, and this law is fixed so it can go back to the people. Let us pass this bill and send it back to the districts where every person, where all the voters, all the laity, all the people at home can take their ballot and go into the booth and vote as they like, and as their consciences dictate on this question. I hope you will vote "aye" on this question.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I believe that the great bulk of the discussion that has been going on on this bill during the last four or five days has been far afield and a great deal of it I think has been irrelevant. As I see it, the entire proposition that is before us tonight is whether we should let the people of Pennsylvania decide for themselves whether they want the Constitution amended so as to permit of legislation on old age pension or whether we shall not permit them to decide that issue. As you know, the first commission on old age pensions was appointed under Governor Brumbaugh, ten years ago. That commission has served under four governors and has made a number of reports during that time. There was no controversy over those reports up to about four or five days ago. I remember that two years ago I voted for this same joint resolution and I know that every member of the house voted for it save one, Mr. Ludlow, from Montgomery County. He was the only member reported as voting against it two years ago, and yet there was no wave of condemnation anywhere in this Commonwealth. In fact I did not receive one single protest on that vote of two years ago, and I actually committed myself to support it the same way this year and I propose to vote for this bill. I cannot understand why for ten years there has been no opposition to this kind of legislation, practically worthy of the name, and that now in the closing hours of this legislature, when this same joint resolution passed unanimously here two years ago with the exception of one vote, why there should be these protests from all over the state. I believe it is largely misunderstood. This joint resolution, if passed will, as you know, only gives to the people the power to say whether or not the constitution shall be amended so that such an act may be passed. That act may be as wide or as narrow as future legislators may choose to make it. I, for myself, have confidence enough in any future legislature that may be elected by the people of Pennsylvania to believe they will use common sense and sound judgment in the enactment of such legislation. I cannot understand why the Governor of Pennsylvania, who has received such a tremendous majority in the last election from the people of the state, should now fail to have that same confidence in the judgment of the people who gave him that large majority. I cannot understand why it is that here in the last moments of this season this opposition has been raised, unless it is what has been remarked and stated in the newspapers, merely that it is a factional fight between two factions. As a minority member I am not interested in the success or defeat of either faction, but I am here to consider this bill on its merits the same as I considered it two years ago when it was passed unanimously. I have served for twelve years as a justice of the peace, and one of the most unpleasant duties that has ever come to me in the course of those twelve years was the sending of some old man or old woman in to the almshouse, especially if they were unwilling to go. I remember one old lady that struck at the constable after her commitment and only lived a few weeks after she went there. Every one of you know that these old people who are respectable and had a standing in their community in other days, when they become unfortunate and you relegate them into the poorhouse, the great majority will break down and will be crushed by the humiliation. You can do nothing more belittling to these people than to take them and throw them into the almshouse. This bill proposes a new method of dealing with this situation and provides for the people to ratify it by their vote, and I want to say if the people from my district vote agaist it I shall be here, if I ever come back, to carry out their opinions, but I do say that the people of the state should have that opportunity to vote on it. This almshouse system is probably two hundred years old, it has been here for several centuries, this system of dealing with the poor. Under this new system we propose a more modern, a more humanitarian and a more humane way of dealing with them. Under this system we propose to give them assistance on the outside and if possible to keep them outside of your poorhouses. The old age pension commission says that it will take five million dollars a year. I do not understand why we cannot accept the figures of that commission. They have from time to time made reports and never have their figures been challenged up to a short time ago. The state Chamber of Commerce which has challenged them has within a few months revised their own figures showing they do not know rightly where they are or where they stand. I believe it is entirely safe to trust to the common sense of any future legislature that may be elected in Pennsylvania and I believe it is entirely safe to trust the common sense of any governor that may be elected by the people of Pennsylvania in the future. I know that the present governor would not for a moment sign a bill that would be extravagant, that would throw the doors wide open and admit everybody. I do not believe that this governor, or any other governor, would ever sign a bill that would indiscriminately throw open the doors where such assistance was not needed, but I do believe that this state, being the second richest of all the forty-eight states of the Union, in this richest country on God's earth, is rich enough to stand up and say, "We will try to deal with our poor in a humane way. We will try, if possible, to keep them out of the poorhouse just as long as we can." I remember in 1913 that these same people who are now scared, and I believe they are only scared, these same people who are now crying about this same amendment were here protesting against the workmen's compensation. Then we heard the cry that it would drive into bankruptcy the industrial interests of this great commonwealth, and yet that great law has been on the statute books now ever since 1915, and I have yet to see the first one of the manufacturers, or the first one of our industrial leaders, go into the poorhouse. It has not bankrupted anybody, and if today those same people were to hold a referendum as to whether they wanted workmen's compensation or not I believe that ninety or ninety-five per cent of them would say, "We want to retain workmen's compensation. It is a good thing." I believe that the same thing will apply to this old age pension. I believe if this should pass and the people should ratify it in the referendum eventually, I say I believe the same people who are here tonight scared, who think that it will mean something unscientific, those same people ten or twelve or fifteen years from now would come in here and say old age pension is a good thing, it is a humane way of dealing with the indigent, with the poor men and women of this commonwealth. I have heard the argument used that the tramp and the bum would come on the payroll of Pennsylvania. I have more faith in the common sense of any future legislature, and I have more faith in the common sense of any future governor of Pennsylvania, than to believe for one moment that an act would be enacted here at any time that would admit the bum or the tramp or those not deserving of it. This is a matter that can be taken care of in the future. I have confidence enough in the people of Pennsylvania and in the legislature and the Governor which they may elect to see to it that common sense shall prevail and that the poor of Pennsylvania shall have a better deal than they have at the present time.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it was not the intention of the opponents of this bill to say anything on the floor of the House tonight, but in view of the speech that has just been made we feel it is our duty to say to the House that there is nothing in the argument of the gentleman who has just sat down that the House has no responsibility in passing upon this bill but that we can with good grace pass it on to the people of Pennsylvania and escape our own responsibility. In the constitution it is provided that not only must the House and the Senate pass on the bill once, but in order that when it goes to the people it will have our recommendation we are required to pass on at two separate sessions of the legislature. If I were to say the one thing which in my judgment is the weakness of the legislature, it is the practice which is commonly known as "passing the buck". It is a custom in this House and in the Senate for the different bodies to vote for legislation of which they do not approve and pass it over to the other house with the idea that the other house will take care of it. It is the duty of this legislature and it is the duty of this House to vote on this bill and for each man and each woman to vote according to the dictates of their conscience.

If you do send it to the people of Pennsylvania for their approval, after it has passed two legislatures, you should keep in mind before you send it to them the fact that two legislatures having passed it, gives to it the endorsement of the legislature when the people receive it. It is the duty of every one in this House, without in any way going into the merits of the bill, to vote on this bill as your conscience tells you to vote and not pass on to the people of Pennsylvania the responsibility which the constitution places on the members of this House.

I say to you now that the remarks of the gentleman referred to are not what should govern this House but that every one in the House should vote on this bill and take the question into his own conscience and say, is it right, or is it wrong, and not pass on to the people of Pennsylvania the responsibility which is ours. I hope if I come to the legislature again that this fight we have had here on this bill will prove to our satisfaction that it is a mistake and bad policy for us to pass these different measures from one house to another, but that each house should take its own responsibility and pass on all bills as the conscience of the members dictate. This measure, in my judgment, is wrong morally and economically, and I ask the members of the House to vote this bill down.

Mr. FRANK N. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my friend on the other side of the House says he has not been hearing from home. That is not the case with me. I have been hearing from home. I have received one letter in favor of this bill and scores of them in opposition to it. Our farmers and our population do not believe that the principle is economically right. We are providing palatial homes in our rural districts for the unfortunate and outside relief is provided for those who can remain at home in decent establishment. I have been hoping to live long enough to see the state of Pennsylvania provide properly for the public schools of this state but if we are to take on these new burdens, if we are to increase salaries, create new commissions, and spend our money extravagantly my ideas will go vanishing. I am not in favor of encouraging the people to lay down on the job with the idea that the state should furnish them a living. I believe the state is responsible for furnishing to every person an opportunity to make a living but not to make them dependent upon the state. We all know of the class that will simply sit down and go hunting or fishing and not work at all because there is a payment provided for them under which they may be pensioned. Our people are absolutely opposed to this line of legislation. This legislature is the first line of defense and I agree with my friend down on the right that we should not "pass the buck."

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not intend to speak on this bill, but since the proponents of the bill have discussed its merits I intend to say just a word. I would be ashamed to go back home and shake the hands of laborers and the hard working people of my district after sitting up here and voting pensions for people that make ten thousand and fifteen thousand dollars a year and not vote for a pension for the poor man.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 968.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Office of the Governor, Harrisburg, April 7, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 968, entitled "An Act abolishing the office of high constable in boroughs having one or more police officers".

While there is provision under the law that borough policemen may hold and exercise the office of constable in a borough, there are duties imposed upon a high constable, such as posting election notices, the performance of which duties are not reposed by statute in police officers. Until such provision is supplied, it would be unwise to abolish the office of high constable.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. DAVIES. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 757.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Office of the Governor, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 757, entitled "An Act requiring the carrying of the flag of the United States of America at the head of public parades."

This Bill makes it unlawful for any person or persons in charge of any public parade to permit or have such parade in any public street, highway, park, lot or tract of land in any city, borough, township or incorporated district unless the standard flag of the United States of America reasonably clean and in good repair and of a certain size be carried unfurled at the head of such public parade.

Without doubt orderly and previously planned parades should, and usually do, carry at the head thereof the standard flag of the United States of America, but the present bill is not limited in its application to such parades. It would apply to all parades except funeral processions without music.

The American flag should be carried in a spirit of solemnity and respect. There are certain classes of entirely proper parades in which this spirit is not present and we do not except it to be present. Requiring the American flag to be carried at the head of such a parade adds nothing to the glory of the flag nor does it change the spirit in which the parade is conducted. It would be entirely inappropriate to require the American flag to be carried before a fantastic or Halloween parade or at the head of an impromptu parade following an athletic contest in which the participants, in their excitement, often become noisy and demonstrative.

It would be difficult and sometimes impossible to enforce the provisions of this Bill which would subject to a penalty those persons in charge of any parade not having a flag of the size specified at its head. It would be impracticable and often impossible for a peace officer to prove that any particular persons were in charge of impromptu parades, funeral processions with music, school children marching from building to building, and parades of like character.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. MARSTELLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 552.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Office of the Governor, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I herewith return, without my approval, House Bill No. 552, which is an amendment to the Act of April 10, 1879, P. L. 16, relating to mutual saving fund building and loan associations. The present Act provides that the profits or interest to be received by withdrawing stockholders shall be prescribed by the by-laws. The section as amended would give this power to the board of directors as well, in that it provides that the profits or interest to be received shall be prescribed by the by-laws or by the board of directors under authority conferred by the by-laws. This, in effect, permits withdrawal values to be fixed by the board of directors of building and loan associations.

Building and loan associations are mutual in character and for this reason stockholders should have as much authority as possible with respect to the management of such organizations. In order adequately to secure the stockholders, withdrawal values should be fixed upon as certain a basis as possible. To achieve this result they should be fixed by the by-laws in order that changes can be made only with the consent of the stockholders themselves.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Office of the Governor, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 849, entitled "An act validating certain proceedings and elections of counties, cities, boroughs, townships, school districts and other municipalities or incorporated districts, had and held pursuant to the provisions of an act approved the twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws sixty-five), entitled 'An act to regulate the manner of increasing the indebtedness of municipalities to provide for the redemption of the same and to impose penalties for the illegal increase thereof' and the amendments and supplements thereto and validating bonds issued or authorized to be issued in pursuance of such proceedings and elections".

This bill is identical with Act No. 47 of the present session of the Legislature which I approved on March 29th.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. CHESTER H. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1250.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Office of the Governor, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1250, entitled "A Joint Resolution providing for the appointment of a commission by the Governor of this Commonwealth for the purpose of investigating and reporting upon both the geologic formation and strength of bituminous coal for the purpose of recommending necessary legislation to safeguard the health and lives of persons employed in the bituminous coal mines of Pennsylvania and for the protection and preservation of property connected therewith in the matter of providing safe and practicable thicknesses of barrier pillars between adjoining mining properties and making an appropriation to meet the expenses of said commission."

This Resolution provides for the creation of a commission of seven persons to be appointed by the Governor. The duty of the commission would be to ascertain from the investigation the geologic formation and strength of bituminous coals in Pennsylvania, to determine the practicable and safe thickness of barrier pillars to be established jointly between adjoining mining properties and to prepare a bill for presentation to the Legislature to protect the welfare and interests of employes, operators, and property owners.

While the commission would serve without compensation its expenses would be payable out of the public treasury and for this purpose the resolution carries an appropriation of ten thousand dollars ($10,000). The Bureau of Topographic and Geologic Survey of this Commonwealth is entirely competent to perform the duties which this Resolution would impose upon the commission. It is not necessary to create a special commission for this purpose.

For this reason the joint resolution is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

Mr. RIEDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the veto together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. McCORMICK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 194.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 194, entitled "An act to amend section one of an act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred eighty-six) entitled 'An act to fix and regulate the compensation of directors of the poor of poor districts composed of several townships, boroughs, and cities situate wholly within counties of this Commonwealth not exceeding five hundred thousand population' as amended increasing the compensation in certain districts."

Compensation now provided by law for the services performed in the districts affected is equivalent to five dollars a day for each three hundred working days in a year. The services to be performed do not require full time work. Under these circumstances the compensation now fixed by law is adequate.

For these reasons the Bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. MacDADE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF SENATE BILL No. 581.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 8, 1927.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith, without my approval, Senate Bill No. 581 entitled "An act to amend section forty-one of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-seven) entitled 'An act relating to the administration and distribution of the estates of decedents and of minors and of trust estates including the appointment bonds rights powers duties liabilities accounts discharge and removal of executors administrators guardians and trustees herein designated as fiduciaries the administration and distribution of the estates of presumed decedents widow's and children's exemptions debts of decedents rents of real estate as assets for payment thereof the lien thereof sales and mortgages of real estate for the payment thereof judgments and executions thereof and the discharge of real estate from the lien thereof contracts of decedents for the sale or purchase of real estate legacies including legacies charged on land the discharge of residuary estates and of real estate from the lien of legacies and other charges the appraisement of real estate devised at a valuation the ascertainment of the curtilage of dwelling houses or other buildings devised the abatement and survival of actions and the substitution of executors and administrators therein and suits against fiduciaries investments by fiduciaries the organization of corporations to carry on the business of decedents the audit and review of accounts of fiduciaries refunding bonds transcripts to the court of common pleas of balances due by fiduciaries the rights powers and liabilities of non-resident and foreign fiduciaries the appointment bonds rights powers duties and liabilities of trustees durante absentia the recording and registration of decrees reports and other proceedings and the fees therefor appeals in certain cases and also general dealing with the jurisdiction powers and procedure of the orphans' court in all matters relating to fiduciaries concerned with the estates of decedents' as amended."

This bill would add to the classes of securities in which fiduciaries may lawfully invest trust funds "trust certificates certifying that the holder thereof is the owner of an undivided interest in a deposit of bonds of individuals secured by first mortgages on real estate in this Commonwealth guaranteed as to payment of principal and interest by corporation incorporated under the laws of this State authorized to guarantee mortgages and which mortgages are deposited with a trustee for the benefit of the holders of said certificates."

I am of the opinion that it would be a very dangerous innovation to permit trust funds to be invested in trust certificates of the class above described. The fiduciaries purchasing such securities would be compelled to rely almost entirely upon the financial soundness of the guarantor company, as it would be impossible for them from time to time to keep themselves informed with regard to the value of the mortgages on real estate intended to secure the bonds.

As far as I am able to learn, the present law furnishes ample latitude for investment by fiduciaries.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass the objections of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT SENATE BILL No. 1546.

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1546, (House Bill No. 1807), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to provide for the safety of persons employed housed or assembled in certain buildings and structures not in cities of the first class second class and second class A by requiring certain construction and ways of egress equipment and maintenance providing for the licensing of projectionists requiring the submission of plans for examination and approval providing for the promulgation of rules and regulations for the enforcement of this act providing for the enforcement of this act by the Department of Labor and Industry and in certain cases by the Chiefs of Fire Departments in cities of the third class providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and repealing certain acts be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Greene, Mr. Parkinson.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Greene, Mr. Parkinson, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator his reason for wishing to recommit the bill to committee.

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, for further study. I want to see the sponsor.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I hope this motion will not prevail. This is an administration measure that the Department of Labor and Industry are interested in. It is merely a combination of two laws, the Act of 1905 and the Act of 1917. This bill combines them and makes them more effective; it gives the Department of Labor and Industry the right to make rules and regulations and the power to carry them into effect. The things that it provides for ought to be done in the construction of theaters and other places where business is carried on.

Now, the Act of 1905 merely gives the Department of Labor and Industry the right to make rules and regulations in order that they may maintain and supervise the construction.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator if this bill provides the same law for third-class cities, as to inspection by the Department of Labor and Industry, as for first-class cities.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, no difference whatsoever.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, in this law, then, the third-class cities are included along with cities of the first-class?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, they are.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I think it is a good bill.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, this bill is fifteen pages in length. There have been several requests for this bill to go over, in order to give a chance to discuss it with the sponsor and for the purpose of studying it. I can see no harm in its going over in its order.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, will the Senator from Greene, Mr. Parkinson, withdraw his motion to recommit this bill?

Mr. PARKINSON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I withdraw my second of the motion.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1563, (House Bill No. 1903), entitled:

An Act providing for the division of certain wards in cities of the first class by the court of quarter sessions

And said bill having been rea dat length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to have about three minutes on this bill. For the past ten years the Republican Organization in Philadelphia have tried to divide the Twenty-second Ward, or Germantown, which has a very large population but is historical and since the time of the landing of William Penn has been a community.

As representing the people of Germantown I wish to protest against this bill. The people of Germantown do not wish to have Germantown divided. The Republican Organization does wish to have it divided up. I am confident the Governor will veto the bill should it be passed by the Legislature; and if the Senate will vote it down it will save the Governor that trouble.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, did the Governor inform the Senator that in case the bill reached him he would veto it?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, not at all. He would not tell me that.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, the District of Germantown, the Twenty-second Ward, is bigger than the majority of the counties in Pennsylvania. It has a larger population than most. So that, that is the reason the division is asked for,—for no other reason. It is really cumbersome to control the political situation; and I have no doubt that in the particular section in which Senator Woodward lives he will still be the boss.

I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, what is the population of Germantown?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, about one hundred thousand.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, that is a State; that is not a county.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I went to a political dinner last spring. The host of that dinner is now going to jail. He was the leader of the Forty-second Ward, which is another ward to be divided. I have not anything to say about that particularly; but the real reason, of course, for this bill is that these two wards especially are too large for the ward leaders. I went around my ward one time, and it took all day; and it is too much of an effort for one man, in these two wards, to run the wards. It is very inconvenient, most inconvenient; but the independents like it that way, of course, and that is the point.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, who are independents?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, who are independents?—well, I do not know; perhaps they have all disappeared.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act requiring counties of the second class to increase the salaries of certain employes

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, this Act is for the purpose of increasing salaries from $1650 a year, I think, downward, ten per cent. If an employe has been working for a period of from ten to twenty years and his salary is not higher than $1650 a year,—it is the horizontal scale from $100 up to $1650. This is to increase it ten per cent.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, like all other legislation at the last minute not a sufficient amount of time has been given to consider the value and necessity and the real meaning of the legislation. This bill was accused of being a bill of trial marriage. It has no such intention. It has no purpose of any such character. It is a protection, in every sense, of youth marrying without consideration and of others marrying without understanding each other. It is a matter that has to be passed upon by the Common Pleas Courts of this State. I say without any hesitancy that if any lawyer studies this Act he will appreciate the fact that it is good legislation. Therefore, I ask the members to pass this bill

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Thou author of all of the real blessings of life, we look to Thee this morning rejoicing in Thy sunshine and in the happiness and joy of springtime. Our hearts are saddened because so many of the homes of the members of this House, and of the Senate, and of those who are on the Hill, have been bereaved since first we met here. And we pray Thee that Thy love and Thy peace may abide in the homes of those who have been afflicted. May we feel that even sorrow and sadness have their missions as well as the happiness and joy of life. Be with us and bless us in all that we do in these closing hours of this session, and may Thy peace abide not only in this Commonwealth and in this nation, but may Thy peace ultimately come to this distracted earth. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 644, as follows:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred nine) entitled "An act regulating the publication of advertisements and notices required by law to be published in counties of this Commonwealth in newspapers published in the English language and newspapers published in the German language" as amended

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of an act approved the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws one hundred nine) entitled "An act regulating the publication of advertisements and notices required by law to be published in counties of this Commonwealth in newspapers published in the English language and newspapers published in the German language" which was amended by an act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred forty-two) entitled "An act to amend an act entitled 'An act regulating the publication of advertisements and notices required by law to be published in counties of this Commonwealth in newspapers published in the English language and newspapers published in the German language' approved the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred and one" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That hereafter every advertisement and notice required by authority of law to be published in any county of the Commonwealth shall where said county shall contain according to the census last taken by the United States Government a population of over forty thousand persons who emigrated from Germany or a population of over forty thousand persons who emigrated from Italy or a population of over forty thousand Yiddish-speaking persons who emigrated from Europe in addition to the publication thereof in one or more daily newspapers printed in the English language be also published in one or more weekly newspapers printed in the English language or in one German daily or weekly newspaper in one Italian daily or weekly newspaper and in one Yiddish daily or weekly newspaper of general circulation printed in such county in the German language and in the Italian language and in the Yiddish language at a price not to exceed the rates charged by English daily papers for like service publication in such English weeklies and German Italian and Yiddish newspapers shall be made as often as that in said newspapers printed in English language and shall be subject to the same stipulations and regulations as those imposed for like services upon such newspapers published in the English language.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill that you are about to vote on is House Bill No. 644. If you will follow me, on page 2 of the bill, section 1, line 15, you will find that the law as it stands today does this: "that hereafter every advertisement and notice required by authority of law to be published in any county of the Commonwealth shall, where said county shall contain according to the census last taken by the United States government, a population of over forty thousand persons who emigrated from Germany or a population of over forty thousand persons who emigrated from Italy or a population of over forty thousand Yiddish speaking persons who emigrated from Europe in addition to the publication thereof in one or more daily newspapers." The act as it stands today provides with reference to that publication that the advertising appear in a daily newspaper. This is merely an amendment to the act which says, "daily or weekly," thereby giving an opportunity to the weekly periodicals to come in under this act. The act is already on your statute books and this is merely an amendment to insert the word "or." There has been some propaganda on a bill relating to advertisements in German newspapers which I understand is still in committee. This bill is exactly as it is on the statute books today with merely the insertion of the word "or." If the members vote "no" after this understanding of the bill, then I have at least had the opportunity of making it clear to the members of the House whether they are voting on another bill to which some of them are opposed, thinking that it may have reached the calendar or whether they are voting on the bill which is now before you and which is only a slight amendment to the original act. I appreciate the courtesy of the Speaker and the members in permitting this explanation and ask that you give this measure your favorable consideration.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, know how many daily newspapers there are published in the state of Pennsylvania in the languages that you mention?

Mr. MARCUS. The gentleman is advised that I do not.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Does the gentleman know the number of weekly newspapers published in those same languages?

Mr. MARCUS. I do not.

Mr. HEFFRAN. Are you of the opinion that the publication of this advertising in weekly newspapers will reach a larger number of people than the publication in the daily newspapers?

Mr. MARCUS. I am of the opoinion that if the daily newspapers have this right under the act, it is only fair and right and equitable that the weekly periodicals should receive the same consideration.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?
